

CONSTITUTION DAY PROCLAIMED

Gov. Morrow Issues Proclamation to Observe Sept. 17, in Mission With Other States

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 2.—In unison with Governors of other States, Gov. Morrow yesterday issued a proclamation calling upon the people to commemorate September 17, as Constitution Day. The proclamation follows:

"Upon the 17th day of September, 1787, the United States of America adopted the Constitution of our Country. For more than one hundred and thirty years this the greatest written instrument ever struck at one time from the brain of man, has bound us together as a people; has safeguarded our most cherished liberties, has shielded and defended us in our right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It has been the Rock of Ages on which the republic builded. It found us a few people on the shores of one ocean. It has beheld and guarded the march of civilization across the wilderness beyond the mountains to the waves of another ocean. It has made possible the nation's gigantic strides of stalwart progress. Under its influence we have passed in numbers one hundred million and under its safeguards and limitations, every man and woman has free chances and free opportunity in the freest land in all the world. To America it is the Ark of the Covenant—the Palladium of our liberty. It holds the promise of all the wonderful days to be.

Therefore, by the authority vested in me, I proclaim September 17th as Constitution Day, and request that all citizens of the Commonwealth shall on that day rededicate and recommit their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to the preservation of the Constitution of the United States of America, to the end that there shall be assured to our posterity the blessings which we have so freely enjoyed."

GITS RID OF HER TROUBLES AT 75

"Tanlac is Certainly a Fine Medicine For Elderly People," She Says.

Among the many Kentucky people who have recently testified to the powers of Tanlac is Mrs. Nannie Chappell residing at 3724 Old Third street, Louisville, who in relating her experience said:

"I am now seventy-five years of age, but I doubt if there are many women that old who feel any better than I do since taking Tanlac. Why, during all the years of my life I have never seen or heard of a medicine to equal it, for a few bottles have relieved me of a case of rheumatism, nervousness and indigestion that had troubled me for twenty-three years. Sometimes my lower limbs hurt me so bad I couldn't walk and at times my arms pained me so I couldn't raise my hands to comb my hair. I had several attacks every year and while they were on me I could neither get up or down without help. Many a time I got so nervous I would shake like a leaf and just dreaded to see night come, for it was impossible for me to sleep. My appetite left me, too, and everything I ate disagreed with me.

"Finally I got so bad off with this rheumatism that I couldn't stay on my feet any longer. While I was down in bed my son, who is a passenger engineer on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, came to see me and said, 'Mother you remember how I suffered so long with stomach trouble and could hardly eat at all, and lost weight and thought I would have to quit work. Well, you see me now weighing two hundred and fifteen pounds, and in such a good condition, that I can eat pork or anything else I want and my health just perfect. Tanlac did this for me and I'm going to get you a bottle.' So he did and almost as soon as I began taking it I felt better. In a few days I had a good appetite and was able to get out of bed. I have taken three bottles of Tanlac now and am feeling like a different person. Every sign of the rheumatism is gone and I am not only able to sleep soundly every night but I usually take a nap during the day. Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine for old people and I will gladly tell anyone personally just what it has done for me.

Tanlac is sold in Cloverport by Wedding's Drug Store, in Kirk by Mattingly Bros., in Addison by L. D. Addison, and in Ammons by Wm. H. Dutschke.—Advertisement.

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY

In view of the fact that it appears to be the custom to announce the personnel of the Managers of Campaigns, we whose names appear below take pleasure in announcing that at a recent meeting of the County Committee—we were elected to conduct the Republican side of the Contest, and as heretofore, you will find us willing to cooperate with you in rolling up the grand old Republican majority that the county is entitled to.

This county has been Republican by a large majority for at least forty years—even the we have at times, in the past lost it. Our majority has been increasing very rapidly for years which is an incentive for us to keep it increasing—and we will.

Now, the women of this country have a right to vote and we expect the Republican majority in this county to believe it will. We have a right to expect the women voters to cast their votes for the Republican Nominees in view of the fact that out of the 38 States that ratified the Federal Amendment—29 of them were Republican State Legislatures. Of course, there are women as well as men, who do not believe in Woman suffrage, but that makes no difference now—they have the right to vote and they had just as well get used to it and enjoy that right.

In the language of the Democratic Chairman "We appeal to all good women read, think and study for themselves." We feel sure that after having done that—the good women of this county will remember the Slogan of Four years ago, "He Kept Us Out Of Wars, and will not be led by the Fraud Eloquence of some Orator, telling the Good Women that the League Of Nations Is The Only Salvation For The World."

We will appoint women members on each committee and from every Precinct in the County. We expect to meet the opposing Party on every issue and guarantee them a real warm reception from now on.

It is a pleasure to the Managers of the Republican County Campaign to ask the voters of this county to cast their vote for Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, for President, Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, for vice-president, Richard P. Ernest, of Covington, Ky., for U. S. Senator and Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., one of Breckinridge's favorite sons—for Congress. The above named have not promised the citizens of this country everything on earth, but they have made you promises which can be fulfilled. We know very well—that the women will remember that J. C. W. Beckham has always opposed women suffrage and has so cast his vote—which the record will show. Hon. Richard P. Ernest is and has always been in favor of the women voting.

This Fifty-fifty stuff that the Democratic County Chairman talks about can't be seen by the writers—with a field glass.

And, in conclusion we want to say that we welcome the newly made Citizens into the Republican Party and we are going to cooperate with you and take you into our counsels and tell you what we know about the game and let you tell us how to make our organization more perfect thereby placing Old Breckinridge County In The Republican Column With 1,000 Majority.

Yours for 1,000 Majority,
P. M. Basham, Campaign Chf.
H. M. Beard, County Chf.
J. R. Meador, Secretary.

NINE REASONS WHY ONE SHOULD ATTEND CHURCH

1. You have not a worthy friend who would not be pleased to have you go to church.
2. The sermon may help you. Daniel Webster said, "It is a mighty poor sermon that doesn't hit me somewhere."
3. It helps up keep in touch with the Eternal Verities. There is danger that God will be crowded out of our thoughts.
4. It helps to keep our ideals fresh and high and stimulates us to live up to them.
5. It encourages an institution that stands for the best things, and that cannot live without friends and supporters.
6. The reflex action of worship is as inevitable as it is ennobling. One cannot help but grow like that which he reverences, loves and adores.
7. Its service appeals to the best sides of our natures; the music to the aesthetic, our friends to the social, the worship to our oldest and deepest instincts.
8. The thought and speech on high themes, the noble hymns and dignified music, are needed to offset the slang, profanity and ragtime with which we are daily assaulted.
9. George F. Hoar said: "There is no more commanding public duty than attendance at church on Sunday. It would be impossible to maintain liberty or self-government if our churches were closed, and public worship of God is to be maintained only by attendance upon it."—Kansas Messenger.

"WE'LL WIN" COX SAYS STARTING TOUR

En Route With Governor Cox, Sept. 3.—The western "swing" of Governor Cox was opened early today with a before-breakfast rear platform address to a railroad station crowd at Toledo, while the Democratic candidate was enroute to Michigan. "I'm starting for the coast," said Governor Cox to his audience. "We're in the fight to win. We will win, because our cause deserves to win."

Charlie Miller, of Eddyville, was in Hardinsburg, last week visiting his old home and friends. Mr. Miller is still holding his job at Eddyville and making good. He has a record in office.

WHAT HAPPENED TO DUMPS.

Once upon a time there was a queer little elf named Dumps, who lived all by himself in a dark little house down in a valley. Ever since he could remember things had gone wrong with him.

He shivered in the cold and kicked the coal bucket when the fire wouldn't burn. He howled when he stumbled over his own dinner pots that he had left sitting in the middle of the floor, and he stood in his front door and scowled when the other elves went by without speaking to him.

He and his family had lived like that for years. When any elf wanted to describe something very sad he would say it was "down in the dumps," and so Dumps went on without a single happy day.

But the elves suddenly decided to give a party. O, it was going to be a very jolly party indeed, and Dumps heard about it. Almost every elf who passed was whistling or singing something cheerful. And some of them were carrying their best green suits to the Wood Fairy's house to be pressed. And when Dumps heard about the party he cried so loudly because he knew that he wouldn't be invited that the Wood Fairy heard him. The noise disturbed her so much she went right down to Dumps's house to see what was the matter with him now.

"Tell me all about it from the beginning, my dear," she asked poor little Dumps.

"I can't see the sunshine!" Dumps howled.

"Of course you can't, said the Wood Fairy. "Your windows are dirty. Get some nice spring water in your little pail and wash them."

Dumps had never thought of doing that. When he washed the windows the sunbeams streamed in like a golden ladder.

"Is there something else the matter?" the Wood Fairy asked.

"My fire won't burn, even though I kick the coal bucket every day," Dumps sobbed.

"Well, do try blowing the fire," the Wood Fairy suggested.

Dumps had never thought of doing that. His bellows were stiff, but he blew them very hard and, crack! there was a nice bright fire, and his teakettle began to sing.

"Is that all?" asked the Wood Fairy.

"O, no," Dumps sighed; "the other elves are giving a party, and I am not invited."

"It is for all the elves, and you don't have to be invited," the Wood Fairy said. "Stand up straight and let me brush your suit. Now run along, my dear."

So Dumps started up the hill to the party, laughing all the way, for he just couldn't stop. You see, he had so many years of being one of the Dumps to make up for. He laughed until all his wrinkles were gone and he was puffed out with happiness. He started bees buzzing and grasshoppers chattering and crickets chirping and a whole crowd of yellow butterflies flew along with him.

"Who can this new, fat, cheerful elf be?" asked all the other elves as Dumps arrived at the party, turning a double somersault into their midst. "We are all here except Dumps, and of course this isn't he!"

Then Dumps showed them how he could turn back somersaults and make a seasaw out of a rush leaf. He taught them how to play baseball with white clover heads and how to make a swing of braided grass. He surprised himself with all the good times he was able to think up.

"Of course this isn't Dumps," the other elves decided. "His name must be Delight."

And Dumps never told them their mistake, for it wasn't really a mistake at all. Now, was it?—Carolyn Sherwin Bailey, in Picture World.

GIRL PLUCKED FROM NIAGARA WHIRLPOOL

Man Leaps to Rescue Her Just In Time

Buffalo, Sept. 1.—Miss Matilda Schoenert of Philadelphia was snatched from certain death in the Whirlpool Rapids at Niagara Falls this evening by Gordon W. Dunn, of Montreal, who was severely cut in the rescue.

They were among the passengers on a gorging route trolley that was blocked at the edge of the Whirlpool Rapids by a fallen rock. The passengers got out of the car and were walking on the bridge of the river. The girl fell over the slight embankment some fifteen feet into the river, but caught and clung to a protecting rock. Dunn saw her danger and vaulted the embankment. He landed on a slight beach of rocks and cut himself severely on hands and head. Getting to his feet he seized the girl before she was swept away.

Help was quickly at hand and the pair were taken back to Niagara Falls Dunn, after his cuts were dressed, left the hospital. The girl is still suffering from shock.

The Dependable Tractor that Burns Kerosene Completely

The 12—25 H. P. Waterloo Boy Tractor is just the kind of machine that we like to put into the hands of our customers.

There is nothing experimental about it. Its dependability has been fully proved in years of service on the farm. Every time we sell one, we feel the assurance that the owner is going to get fully satisfactory service from it. And that means a great deal to the future of our business.

Right along with its dependability for long-continued good work, there is another big feature that you will appreciate every day you use the Waterloo Boy.

It burns kerosene completely. Its patented kerosene manifold—one that you can get on no other tractor—converts all of the low-priced fuel into a highly-combustible gas, enabling the engine to get full power from every drop.

That saves engine trouble—no kerosene gets into the lubricating oil. There is no carbonizing of cylinders or fouling of spark plugs.

And it saves many dollars in fuel cost every year of its operation.

You are sure to like all of the Waterloo Boy's other features. It is simply made; easy to keep in good running order. The working parts, fully protected from dust, are placed where you can easily get at them, whenever necessary, through inspection plates and detachable casings. The engine, perfectly balanced and mounted on a solid foundation, runs without vibration—no racking of mechanism. Gears are steel-cut and case-hardened—practically everlasting. It is equipped with Hyatt Roller Bearings, famous throughout the world for conserving full power. All bearing points and gears are kept constantly in a bath of oil by a positive system of lubrication.

Be sure to come in some day soon and get fully acquainted with the Waterloo Boy.

HOPELESS DISEASES CAN NOT BE CURED BY DOCTORS OR MEDICINE

There are some diseases which are absolutely hopeless and past cure by any physician or medicine, but they may yet be palliated and a medicine, if it can not help in one case, it may help in another. In one suffering from a disease a remission is a degree of health and a medicine that relieves or palliates a disease is of great benefit. We can not guarantee to cure any disease with Number 40 For The Blood, but we quote word for word what the ingredients in 40 are recommended for in the U. S. Dispensary and New American Materia Medica. "In the treatment of blood troubles, an acknowledged remedy among all schools of physicians, removes the cause of disease and stimulates the removal of waste, thus indirectly encouraging nutrition. Disorders of the nervous system demand this remedy, such as neuralgias, chronic rheumatism, gouty conditions, malnutrition, auto-intoxication, constipation. Used with phenomenal success in eczema and skin diseases, lumbago, glandular swellings, ulcerations of mucous membranes and in general disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and spleen or a general run down condition of the system." Prepared by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., 40 years a druggist. The best druggist in your neighborhood sells Number 40, but if it happens that he does not, send direct to J. C.
